

Whereas women continue to be underrepresented in science and technology careers;

Whereas women are often paid only 72 cents for each 1 dollar paid to men for the same work;

Whereas women are disproportionately affected by poverty and elderly women are generally more dependent on the social security program under title II of the Social Security Act; and

Whereas women can reflect upon the opportunities created during the 20th century and look toward even greater accomplishments in the 21st century: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Senate—

(1) honors and commends the accomplishments and unflinching spirit of women in the 20th century;

(2) recognizes the crucial roles of women in our communities as mothers, wives, and family caregivers;

(3) recognizes the disparity in equality that women still face;

(4) reaffirms the need to prevent and punish violence against women so that women may be safe from domestic violence, sexual assault, elder abuse, and violence in the workplace;

(5) recognizes that women should have equal access to health care and inclusion in research and clinical trials;

(6) recognizes the need for equality in vocational and academic education;

(7) recognizes that the pay gap should be closed;

(8) commits to preserving the social security program under title II of the Social Security Act and the medicare program under title XVIII of such Act; and

(9) pledges to make the 21st century the "Century of Equal Opportunity for Women".

Mr. CLELAND. Mr. President, I rise today to submit a resolution recognizing the 21st century as the "Century of Equal Opportunity for Women."

This proposal recognizes that as we enter the 21st century, it is essential that we note the great strides made by women in the 20th century as well as recognizing fundamental inequalities still faced by women as we begin the 21st century. The need for this resolution comes from the important requirement to acknowledge past achievements but to also address specific areas where further improvements are needed in order to ensure that women are given equal opportunity.

Unfortunately, women continue to face challenges and disparities in areas like health care and wages. This resolution acknowledges inequities such as the pay gap and challenges us to see that these issues are addressed so that women may have not just more opportunities, but equal opportunities. The measure is supported by the American Association of University Women. I, along with co-sponsors Senators CLINTON, COCHRAN, and MURRAY, urge our colleagues to support this resolution and recognize the 21st century as the "Century of Equal Opportunity for Women."
